11/21/2022

Eve Plumb
Guest narrator, The Chelsea Symphony

Eve Plumb started her acting career at age 6 performing in TV commercials. She is well remembered for her portrayal of “Jan” on “The Brady Bunch”, as well as TV movies such as “Dawn: Portrait of a Teenage Runaway” and “Little Women”. Stage credits include “Love, Loss, and What I Wore”, “Miss Abigail’s Guide to Dating, Mating & Marriage”, “Unbroken Circle”, and regional theatre work throughout the United States. Eve has proudly been part of three “Broadway Backwards” performances for Broadway Cares Equity Fights Aids.

Recent television credits include “A Holiday Spectacular” for Hallmark, “Law and Order: SVU”, “Blue Bloods”, “Bull”, “Grease Live!”, “Crashing”, and a recurring role on Hulu’s “The Path”.

Eve is a painter whose oil painting works are carried by multiple galleries in the U.S.

In 2020, Eve and her husband launched PlumbGoods - a line of colorful accessories and home décor, and in 2022 they launched the Happiness Included Coffee Collection – specialty grade coffees roasted to order and delivered to your door.

For more information please visit www.eveplumb.tv and www.plumbgoods.tv .